

Word of the Day

Every weekday for the next 2 weeks, pick a new Word of the Day (parents/guardians: you may choose to help pick a Word of the Day). It can be a new word you did not already know, a word you really like, or a word you read in a book that day. Write the word in the box for that day, and either define it, write a sentence including it, or draw out what it means. Can you also think of a word that rhymes with your Word of the Day? If you need an idea to start, try “rain” for Day 1 (rain is water
