

MUTED MOVIE

Let your child(ren) watch a one-minute scene of dialogue from a movie or television show, while the TV is on mute. Using their imagination and creativity, they must write what they think that characters are saying and what the situation is.

You may want to use a familiar movie the first few times to get them comfortable with the activity, but then begin using a movie they have not seen yet.

Literacy:
Learning for Life.

L'alphabétisation,
Une leçon pour la vie.